A STUNNING LOCATION

Virtually on Bigbury-on-Sea's big and splendid sandy beach, looking at Burgh Island over the low-tide sandy causeway, Helpful Holidays has fifteen smart and lovely apartments available for revitalising weeks or short breaks. The views over the sea to the south and west and of the huge expanse of smooth tide-washed, yellow sand reaching to Burgh Island are outstanding.

All apartments are marvellously light, with large, open-plan living areas and view-facing glazed doors to balconies or terraces, ideal for al fresco dining or sunbathing. The kitchens are all well-equipped, with dishwasher, microwave, fridge-freezer and washing machine or washer-drier. All bedrooms are en suite.

Visit www.helpfuleholidays.com for more photos of all the apartments. Of course, each apartment has secure, allocated parking.

WITH ITS OWN POOL

The Leisure Club is open for your use every day from 10am. It has a fine indoor swimming pool, spa pool, extensive well-equipped gym (treadmill, steps, cycles, Concept II rower, heart monitors and other instruments of torture) and sauna.

The bar provides coffee and drinks throughout the day and light meals served either in the comfy lounge, on the terrace or for you to take to your apartment. The local shop will provide hampers of groceries for your arrival.

Visit www.helpfuleholidays.com for details of prices and live availability for all apartments.

AND SEA TRACTOR RIDE

At high tide the beach is washed by the sea and Burgh Island can only be reached by sea tractor – a unique experience! The island is well worth a visit, with its Art Deco hotel made famous by Edward and Mrs Simpson, The Beatles, Noel Coward and Agatha Christie who wrote two of her novels here, and the jolly good food pub, The Pilchard (pictured above).

Bigbury is on the South Devon Coastal Path, between the beautiful rivers Avon and Erme. Originally a footpath to allow coastguards to patrol the beaches and inlets against smugglers, the path hugs the cliff tops and offers incomparable views and access to hidden coves. There are also gentle rambles inland on pretty footpaths.

FOR BEACH & GOLF LOVERS

For golfers, Bigbury has one of the finest eighteen hole courses in the West Country with wonderful sea views.

Bigbury-on-Sea, at the mouth of the River Avon, has one of the South Hams' most stunning beaches. It was awarded a Blue Flag in 2009. There are acres of clean, golden sand at low tide (part of the beach is dog friendly in summer and three of the apartments welcome man's best friend), perfect for sandcastles, cricket and kite flying, and rock pools for exploring. The water is good for paddling (lifeguards in summer) and, for the more adventurous, there's surfing lessons (07813 639622) or windsurfing (01752 255999) with all equipment provided.

LOCAL THINGS TO DO

A day on the beach at Bigbury and visit to Burgh Island including cocktails at the Art Deco hotel

A walk from Salcombe to Bolt Head along the coastal path

A day along the River Dart, by train and boat, Dartmouth and Totnes

A trip to East Prawle (lunch in the pub), Start Point, Torcross and Slapton Ley

A drive on Dartmoor to Widecombe, Haytor, Two Bridges and Princetown and maybe a walk

A trip to the National Marine Aquarium in Plymouth and a walk on the Hoe

A surfing lesson at Bigbury or Bantham

An evening stroll and a meal at one of the great local pubs, such as the Royal Oak at Bigbury or the Journey's End at Ringmore
