A HOLIDAY TO REMEMBER

It's your holiday so spoil yourself and grab the chance to relax in the holiday home of your dreams, one which brings together stylish, chic design and simple quality. A holiday home to remember with the emphasis on style and comfort equal to or often better than your own home comforts and certainly more comfortable than the latest boutique hotels. A holiday cottage to inspire you and one where you have everything you need to enjoy your holiday to the full.

Helpful Holidays has holiday homes of style and distinction that you'll want to come back to time after time. Taking care of all the finishing touches, many of our cottages have something truly special to offer, right down to the designer fabrics and soft furnishings or the state of the art fitted bathrooms and kitchens. Above all else, all these distinctive homes provide a totally relaxed atmosphere and a truly warm welcome.

TIME TO SPOIL YOURSELF

Whether you're looking for a quiet, romantic snug, tucked away in a pretty village for just the two of you or an invigorating seaside location for the whole family, we have just the cottage for you. There are so many to choose from throughout Cornwall, Devon, Somerset and Dorset, in settings with views to drool over - properties to suit all moods and tastes...

Stylish, modern apartments overlooking boat filled estuaries or bustling harbours in traditional fishing villages (try S4 in Falmouth, a modern, light and spacious apartment with a delightful master bedroom with a panoramic view of the estuary), or perhaps nestling in delightful countryside (J167, the Hayloft near Crediton, a fine contemporary apartment for two, full of light modern colours and styling).

If beautifully renovated thatched cottages on the village green are more to your liking, then try Ivy Cottage (A72 in Manaton), a 16th century cottage painstakingly and sensitively restored with great attention to detail and style. Or perhaps a Grade II listed 14th century Devon longhouse and barn, which the owners have turned into a brilliantly comfortable, luxurious 21st century home (A66, Northhill in Chagford).

Barn conversions and farmhouses abound... one of the best we have seen is up on Dartmoor (A614, Weddicott Barn in Chagford) superbly converted into a fine home, full of light and space with long, lovely views from its south-facing windows. Or try The Hay Loft (G40 in Kentisbeare), a roomy and comfy, newly converted barn, where you'll fight over the delightfully pretty and luxurious bedrooms throughout this exquisite home.

Perhaps you are looking for something a little more contemporary? Then try Underbecks (L901 in Salcombe), an exciting new detached house in a stunning position overlooking the estuary, exceptionally spacious and full of light, cleverly furnished, very stylish – no chintz here. Or Blackbird Barn (L53 in Woodleigh), a stone and slate barn cleverly converted by its young interior designer owner into a brilliant chill-out hideaway.

WIND DOWN IN COMFORT

Wherever you go, you'll discover style, elegance and comfort all the way.

Wind down over a glass of chilled wine in the comfort of your luxurious and beautifully appointed living room, full of big comfy sofas that cry out for you to sprawl over in complete abandon, whilst recalling the day's highlights – spent walking on the moors or exploring the coastal path and secluded coves nearby.

If and when you want to cook, there are superbly appointed kitchens with the very latest equipment. When combined with the wonderful, fresh seafood and produce of the region, they will bring out the Jamie Oliver or Rick Stein in you (both of whom have immensely popular restaurants down here in the West Country).

Enjoy a long, lazy supper, reliving the day's adventures in the elegant dining room that will inspire you to linger at the table, catch up and chill out with your friends and family.

TO ESCAPE... ANY TIME

You'll discover sumptuous bedrooms, perfect for that long morning lie in over mugs of tea and papers, whilst you plan the rest of your day... or maybe just sink further into the deep, soft pillows and dream on - after all, you're on holiday with no early morning calls and no need to rush down to breakfast before the hotel restaurant closes.

Why not pamper yourself in the plush, stylish bathroom, where you will find all the comforts of home and more and can luxuriate in hot, steamy comfort?

Don't get too comfortable though... for the more energetic amongst you, there are beautiful pools, saunas and exercise areas to help burn off those calories accumulated with all that delightful, local West Country food.

Impeccable taste and flair prevail throughout to excite and inspire you... to come again, perhaps with friends and family, or maybe to try another of our distinctive holiday cottages.
